"It's hard to get used to a "it's hard to get used to a new way of life—especially if you don't have the money to do the things you'd like with the time that's now available."

Three of every ten Americans 65 and older are living in poverty, a special United States Senate report has disclosed. "Many of these aged people," it notes, "did not become poor until they became old."

Pointing out that older persons now have disproportionately less income than they had in 1861, the report observes that "the economic position of persons now old will deteriorate markedly in the years ahead."

It is quite obvious when tering Jane's home that here is someone with an artistic Ckground. The decor of is and white mixed with rant rusty reds is an ex-itent setting for the gleam silver containers. A cracker doubling as a container for ens, and a huge silver cruet Iding multicolored votive hts reveals an inventive

One unusual and prized titem is her antique spoon rack, which holds up to 24 spoons or other assorted silverware. Jane files to display her silver spoon collection on his rack and is always triping to find new coin silver spoons. But with the renewed interest in silver and the price of silver items rising accordingly, they have become somewhat scarce.

Ken Morales went three-for-three and had one RBI to lead Hersey to a 2-0 victory over Fremd iast night in Sum-mer League pisy. Craig Prosser and Pete Mooney teamed up on the mound for the Huskies to shut out their opponents while only

THE HUSKIES took an early 1-0 lead in the top of the first inning. Ken Kennepe, the Huskies' shortstop, led off with a single to left, and after stealing second, Bill Ludwigsen sucrificed him to third with a bunt beck to Mark Wickland on the mound.

Fremd couldn't get a good raily going until the third in-ning, but the Huskies came up with a good double play to stop them from scoring. Wickland do off with a single to right and made it all the way to third on an throwing seror by Jim Quade, Hensey's catcher.

BOB LAUGHLIN and Dave Hauswirth were then both safe on fielder's choices to load the bases. A sharp play by Jim Fletcher and Quade led to a double play that took some of the pressure off the Huskies' pitcher.

Ed Wlodarczyk, Fremd's shortstop, hit a hard grounder-to Fietcher at third. He fired home to get the runnier out on the force at the plate and Quade threw to first in time to get Wlodorczyk. The third out was a routine grounder from Morales to Skeve Koch.

Talk with a Teacher

My column today will try to help you develop your child's ability to organize facts or in-formation and engage in the mental activities which are in-volved in solving a problem. This is a necessary part of learning the problem.

HERE YOU HAVE events in sequence which the child must keep in mind in order to get Peter back home. That's the eventual happy ending that all children want for -safety, security, home! In "The Three Bears"

Codilects were through a territor of criticity happenings, but find you will be a considered on the control of the control of

NON-DRINKER

Dear Lee Jasson.
Even though they're only seniors in high school, everyone in my crowd drinks beer and some of them drink liquor. I don't drink, mostly because I just don't like the stuff. I don't really care whether they drink or not, but at every party and pienic someone keeps insisting that I have something to drink. I just don't care to drink, but they won't leave me alone.

Practice Win to Lions

The Logan Square Lions when the cathoer threw the whipped Riis Park, 9-6, in e ball into center field on a practice game shortened to six double steal.

LOGAN SQUARE broke the game open with five runs in the third inning. With one out, Larry Geyer was hit by e pitch end Mike Pettenuzzo singled him to second. Both runners oropped initio strike to loss the bases.

Rooney walked to force in a run, breaking the tie end making the score 5-2. The Hymes followed with a grounder to short, but the shortstop made e wild throw to the plate end another run scored.

Pat Donahuse then got his second straight single to drive in two more runs, end the final tally of the inning came home
